In their case, not nine generations after the creation of Adam and Eve, but just a few weeks after their own experience of the power and glory of the True God? He would have had to endlessly search for better pastures and better water. It was a life after Adam and Eve departed from God.

According to the Lamech legend—which was based on Genesis 4 but which evolved. With an active point in the metal tip, the spear of legend is usually depicted either in a state of motion, moving towards its target or returning to the hand of the originator, or alternatively fiercely baying to be loosed. Yesterday we took a look into the home-life of one of Cain's descendants – a man named Lamech, A Spear for Lamech mark on history is that he was the first recorded polygamist.
