If you dream about someone you like or even love! Lyn Gallacher : And yet there are things that Dreams Of Speaking do invest with great beauty, and the passage that I was thinking of was when Mr Sakamoto is talking to his uncle on the telephone and 'every time he puts down the receiver he feels like he's been kissed'.

PayattentiontowhatHeistellingyou.An academic consciousness tinted by the language of cultural theory often nudges through the poetic musing but, ironically, it is in Mr Sakamoto's sparse chunks of biography that the book's real poetry lies.
