It took a tragedy of tremendous proportions to lift American suspicion of Catholic nuns. Believe me, no one got past. For despite appearances, religious life in America is not dead. I read your article with great interest. She remembers turning and staring at the long line of little people following her that day awed by the sheer amount of work they would mean for her in the year to come. Seller Inventory P There were sixty-five of them, including one hyperactive boy who would regularly destroy her lesson plans and the classroom quiet she created because he was simply unable to stay in his seat. Though the nuns whomaintained them have passed the torch to a new generation, there are about 65, sisters in America, down from in
