But Laili had become once more a hideous old woman, with a long, long nose, and teeth like tusks ; just such an old woman, excepting her teeth, as she had been when she came out of the Rohu fish ; and she lived in the jungle, and neither ate nor drank, and she kept on saying, " Majnun, Majnun ; I want Majnun. She followed him every where, went with him when he was out hunting, and helped him to catch his Indian Fairy Tales: Fully Illustrated, and Prince Majnun fed her with milk, or bread, or anything else he was eating, and at night the little dog slept in his bed.
