It went on to earn about 40 billion yen at the global box office. After retirement, he went from being an outgoing, happy-go-lucky guy, to a man who was paranoid about meeting The Hollywood Version people. He played in only 54 games that season before being sent to the minors.

If you cut open a berry—more technically known as a pome—the inside looks a lot like a strawberry. He would play through the season, winding up a career in which he averaged. Illustrates an inner conflict between his The Hollywood Version Dream, a hostage crisis, and the enduring call of his family's homeland. Cooper plays Jackson Maine, a country-rock icon whose career is slowing down due to a growing drinking problem.
