Tobacco is not grown, arrowroot is far less of a staple industry than it was, but little grain is raised, and, even as early as a visitor I to the islands noted that agriculture had dwindled to. The second part is called the Middle Plantation : its soil is yet almost new, being only known to be good for tobacco. Every vessel has at least two negroes in it, who are very dextrous in diving to the depth of six fathoms, where they find good store of pearls. Maps, charts, illus. Vortrageder Thus every one is dipped several times in the main ocean; but he that is dipped first has the honour of being saluted with a gun. That part of this island which stretches to the north is totally uninhabited: the reason is, first, because it is incommodious, and unhealthy : and, secondly, for the ruggedness of the coast, that gives no access to the shore, unless among rocks almost inaccessible : for this cause it is peopled only on the south part, which hath only one port indifferently good : yet this harbour has two entries, or channels, which afford passage to ships of seventy guns ; the port itself being without danger, and capable of receiving a great number of vessels.

Drake made a few quick steps towards the Spaniard, crying out that "for the honour of God keep you many years. But the name had become fixed.
