From all this it is plain that, if the primary duty toward God the last end of man is denied, then every other duty is deprived of its ultimate foundation. It is an established fact, then, that goodness is realized in varying degrees. God makes Himself felt within us as the principle of that filial love for Him which And if it is not truth, that is because it has received truth from some higher source. Kiss the hands of God crucified for you, the hands that have struck you and caused you to suffer. May your eyes be simple, upright and always nourished with Honey! We should always accept them with the perfect confidence they merit; with an open mind and with generosity, and be sure that nothing will harm those who act .
