All in all-a fascinating book with a very interesting premise. Quarry in the Black And also from the fact that so many tales revolve around real life characters and events where because of the great research, Nate Heller can step into the role of real life investigators or police and away we go with a what-if presentation where the end result always follows the truth but with the Max Collins twists and turns. TheE-mailmessagefieldisrequired. Collins is praised for his high skill of crime masterpieces. Mystery fans cannot help but to love this series. Yourlisthasreachedthemaximumnumberofitems.CloseX.Using real life events that either people had history of or wanted to know; then to use a character like Nathan Heller placing him perfectly in the story is genius.
