Cultural competence is being respectful of and responsive to the beliefs, practices and cultural and linguistic needs of diverse communities both from the individual practitioner and the organisation agency. Work has commenced through the CSCB, the Safeguarding Adult Board and the Community Safety Partnership in establishing whether there are services in place to address these risks and how it can be improved. Alesha is four years old and lives with her mother, step father and older brother and is not known to have had any previous involvement with services.
