About a week later, I was back home and I heard a tapping on my bedroom window. As much as we want to connect with our loved ones right away, to know they are safe and comfortable, it's important that we be allowed time to come to terms with their absence.

A medium is someone who receives communication from the souls of those who have passed. I have had many readings over the years but was especially pleased with my reading with Laura. The Holy Bible states we have free will and free choice but to this day many religions accept only their own doctrine and dogma to be the truth. Blaine, Washington, United States of America. Want to communicate with your Spirit loved ones. I have spent a lifetime helping others to be their own mediums and this course came about due to the many clients I have worked with over the years and readers of my books who contacted me wanting to learn how they too could also communicate with Spirit.
