Victoria was producing a newscast when her husband who worked at the same television station and several other journalists were held hostage by a disturbed Vietnam veteran. Georgine's and Joe's struggles, both past and present, really hit you hard as a reader.

I was pleasantly surprised by this new-to-me author. View image of Social media I truly enjoyed getting to know everyone and this story was also a little less predictable, so it was good to see what happened to everyone and how things panned. Bill collectors driving her to no wits end, she tries to find comfort with helping organize a Christmas show in a academic arts music school.

Hope you like. The story about the little boy wanting a dog is just lovely and can't have to say I loved this date. Victoria Alexander writes in such a way that you are instantly sucked into her characters' world.
